Joanna Booth

Web Developer / Analyst / Editor / Writer

Bristol, e-mail: jboothform@gmail.com

GitHub: Stillawake17

Web Development

Skills

Javascript, CSS, HTML
Bootstrap
Node.js
React

Project Work

Web-based daily planner

Employment

Editor / Journalist

2015 – 2023
Freelance book editor; Books editor at Bristol24/7 (September 2014 – September 2015)
www.bristol247.com

Research and Analysis

October 2009 – October 2015
Senior Analyst / Programmer, Analysis and Research, UCAS
*Skills: SAS programming, SAS certified, Proc SQL, SPSS, R.

October 2007 – October 2009
Senior Research Officer, Policy Unit UCAS
*Skills: Nvivo, quantitative and qualitative research methods, sampling, interviews; focus groups, workshops, Equality Impact Assessments, interviews, survey design and implementation.

Qualifications
2008 - PRINCE2 Certification; 2005 - Project Management Course at the Lifelong Learning Centre at the University of Essex

Conference Presentations and publications available on request

Statistical Software – Nesstar Ltd.
August 2002 – August 2005
Testing, Support and Documentation for statistical software that deals with data archiving and analytical programs. Spin-off from the UK Data Archive at the University of Essex.

Education

2001-2002 - MA European Politics, University of Essex; 1999-2001 - BA Politics, University of Essex
1995-1998 - LLB Law, University of Kent;
2007 - Summer School for Data Analysis, University of Essex
2005-2007 - University of Bristol (postgraduate; incomplete MPhil)
1998 – Ongoing - Open University courses from within the following degree schemes:
BSc (Honours) Information Technology and Computing; MSc Social Research Methods; LLB Law.